Hi Folks,

Wow, it has been quite a year so far, our Late Christmas sale was very well attended. Joan and I drove down to Florida over the New Years holiday where we had dealer friend guests from California and Germany before the FUN show in Orlando. The show was very busy and there were many comments like "the good ole days" again! We were so busy I never got lunch the first day and the second day I took a few bites at 4:30 and decided I might as well wait until dinner for nicer food. As usual we entertained after the show as well. Time went quickly because we only had two weeks before the earlier than usual Long Beach CA Expo. After Long Beach we were back in NY for a few days and then the big event! Joan and I celebrated our 50th Wedding anniversary with a renewal of our vows on February 12th. Our actual date is the 15th but scheduling issues made the 12th our best option. It was wonderful even though Joanie was a little reluctant to commit for another 50. I softened the blow by paying her back the original $4 she paid for our marriage license, plus interest of course. In retrospect I should have done it in Wheat pennies. But that might have ended a perfect relationship!

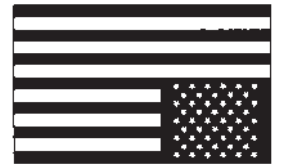

Last year when we returned from fun in the sun there was the massive flood which ruined our kitchen and many items in the basement. This year another catastrophe although must smaller in scope. We came home to about a 12-foot-wide sink hole in the middle of our back yard where there used to be a cesspool. Old homes are fun ☺ and our is over 200 years old. I am writing this early Friday morning and my nephew who is in the excavating business arrived with his crew 1/2 an hour ago to replace ours. He usually builds golf courses and fancy stuff. But hey family is family!

So, about this list, we have a lot of very interesting NEWPS; a nice selection of modern certified Silver Eagles to a very Historic Early American (Dutch) Dollar. We managed to obtain 300+ of these. Local dealers have been buying them by the handful from us. There is some really scarce US gold including 4 Carson City issues and the Only 'O' mint $5 Indian, a nice selection of Barber material strong in 1/2$, Very scarce early half and large cents, high grade and key Indian cents, Better date Standing Liberty 1/4$, rare early high grade W.L. 1/2$, Confederate 1/2$, Japanese Samurai coinage and a nice selection of affordable World Bank Notes/coins. For the investor/collector a silver BU roll set of Roosevelt Dimes, haven't seen one in more than 20 years!

JAPAN

Japanese Samurai period coinage.

We have recently come across a hoard of early Japanese coinage. The photos below are slightly under 1/2 size. All coins are in exceptional condition for their age, especially the bronze issues which are normally prone to corrosion. These are all hand hammered coins from the 1600's to about 1870. A chance to own something associated with a fascinating period of world history.
