Hi Folks,

Well, this list was supposed to go out a month ago. Somehow life got in the way of business. We are currently in Hamburg Germany for a Rotary International Conference. Last week we were at the Baltimore Whitman Coin Expo and those of you who attended got to meet Kieran, our grandson. It was his first coin show! He was a little reluctant at first but at age 10, but he got out on the floor cleaning showcases and running coffee/lunch errands for dealers. He had a goal of earning the $66 entry fee for a karate tournament that interested him. He about doubled his goal in tips. That's my Grandson ☺.

Going backwards, we were at a Rotary District Conference the previous weekend in Saratoga Springs, NY. I am district treasurer so had a lot of work preparing reports and stuff. The week before that was Easter and our annual family gathering in Florida. The family was so demanding I had to cancel my trip to the Central States Show. It was just too much since right before that we were in Dalton, GA for the GNA event, gets kinda confusing doesn't it?

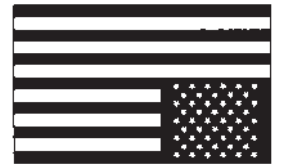

Take a peek at the items listed and you will see many nice and desirable coins and currency. We have 3 new ever popular 1909-S VDB cents, two 1955 double die cents, two 1901-S quarters that we have had none available in over 6 months and an illusive 1916 SLQ. There are many neat type coins and our usual strong selection of Barber coinage, strong in halves as I like. Plenty of paper money, both US and world with a nice group of MPC's a good selection of US gold with several rarities from our European source.

Oh, by the way. Our store is now closed on Tuesday's until further notice. The phones will be answered but we just don't have enough staff to man (women) the store front and back office, and Tuesday is our slowest store day.

LIST 315, June 2019

Happy Collecting
